GENERAL INFORMATION

Retirement of Commander Jeffeory Hynes

Commander Jeff Hynes is retiring from the Phoenix Police Department after 32 years of dedicated service.

Jeff began his career with the Phoenix PD in October of 1979. He worked as a patrol officer in three of the department's six precincts and also held assignments in the Training Bureau and Community Relations Bureau.

He was promoted to Sergeant in January of 1986 and worked as a patrol supervisor in the Squaw Peak Precinct and as a supervisor in the Department's Employment Services Bureau.

In July of 1989, Jeff was promoted to Lieutenant and assigned to the Central City Precinct as a shift Lt. He also served as a Lt. in the Department's Training Bureau, Professional Standards Bureau, Community Relations Bureau and Planning and Research Bureau.

In January of 2004, He was promoted to Commander and held command assignments in the Tactical Support Bureau, Central City Precinct, Family Investigations Bureau, Professional Standards Bureau and Desert Horizon Precinct.

PLEA will assist in hosting a retirement sendoff for Jeff to be held at the PLEA office on Friday September 9th. The event will run from 1200-1400 hours in the PLEA classroom. Light refreshments will be served.

PLEA would like to encourage everyone to stop by to share a story or just wish Jeff well in his retirement and future endeavors.
